O'Hara, C. Neil

[132 Midwood St.,
Brooklyn, NY]

1929

C. NEIL O'HARA
132 MIDWOOD STREET
BROOKLYN, N. Y.

May 8, 1929

The Secretary
The American Numismatic Society
New York, N.Y.

Dear Sir:

Will you please mail to the above address, in the inclosed envelope, information regarding the American Numismatic Society, what aid it gives to collectors, if any, and, if possible a list of reliable coin dealers.

Sincerely yours,
C. Neil O'Hara

9th May, 1929

Mr. C. Neil O'Hara,
Brooklyn, N.Y.

Dear Sir:

Responding to yourd of May 8th, I am enclosing a list of coin dealers.

Our Society maintains a Museum at the above address. At the present time it is closed during building operations. As a return for the Associate membership dies of $5.00 annually our publications are sent and our library is at the disposal of members who are able to visit our building.

I trust this will give you the information you desire.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

C. NEIL O'HARA
132 MIDWOOD STREET
BROOKLYN, N. Y.

May 10, 1929

Mr. Sydney P. Noe, Secty.
The American Numismatic Society
New York, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

In regard to your answer to my letter of the eighth I wish to thank you for the information you sent, but I regret to say that I could not find the enclosed list of coin dealers. I hope I am not putting you to additional trouble to forward a duplicate.

Yours truly,
C. Neil O'Hara

5-11-29